The structure of the tests observes the model provided by international tests Cambridge (FCE- <http://www.cambridgeenglish.org/exams-and-tests/first/> and DALF http://www.ciep.fr/sites/default/files/biblio-flash_ressources-de-preparation-aux-certifications-delf-dalf.pdf) which award the participants the B2 qualifier as minimal level of language competence. The duration of the test is one hour and a half.

The candidate can register only one time and can take the exam only one time.

The candidates who do not obtain at least the B2 level in the first testing procedure (20 June 2019) are not allowed to participate in the second testing session (04 July 2019).

Upon entering the designated lecture hall, candidates will present their passport.

The Rector’s Office will post on the University site the results of the examination in the section “University Admission”, within 7 days after the examination.

The results of the examination are final and cannot be disputed.

Scanned copies of the certificates of language skills will be sent to the candidates via e-mail, to the address used by the candidate in the registration process. These copies will be required in the on line registration for the admission competition. The original documents will be included in the registration folders of the candidates by the Deans’ Offices.
